Report of the President

Fiscal Year 2015-2016 marks my second year as your President, and as I reflect on the events of the year, I would like to extend my appreciation once again to the members of the Church Club Board of Trustees for their dedication, engagement, and support. We continued our work on a number of initiatives, and hosted stimulating programs that many of you enjoyed.

After much work by the Board-appointed task force to review the Church Club's Constitution and Bylaws, the revisions were unanimously approved by the Membership at the 2016 annual meeting held in June. At the same meeting, we presented the third annual Young Adult of the Year Service Recognition Award, having enlarged the geographic area of eligibility this year to encompass not only the Diocese of New York, but also the Dioceses of Long Island, Connecticut, Newark, and New Jersey.

Nancy Fisher

We continued the practice of inviting Board members to offer personally meaningful opening meditations at the start of each meeting, thereby enabling us to share spiritual reflections while placing our ensuing work in a prayerful framework. We also continued the Board's "strategic conversations," broad-based discussions intended to stretch our thinking around new strategies as we explore the current and future state of the Church Club and its Membership. Those conversations were the springboard for several initiatives including the creation of an Obligations and Expectations document for Board members, as well as the very well-received symposium, "Women Rectors: Leadership for the 21st Century," held in the spring.

In last year's Annual Report, I remarked on the unprecedented turnout for the Church Club's Annual Dinner of 2015. So imagine how delighted I am to tell you that this year the Church Club's 129th Annual Dinner set another record. Over 250 guests attended the event at which The Most Reverend Michael Bruce Curry, Presiding Bishop and Primate, was our guest of honor and keynote speaker.

The 2015-2016 Annual Report chronicles Church Club events during that period; and it includes the Membership Roster and statistics, and the Treasurer's Report. I also invite you to visit our website, www.churchclubny.org, which is updated regularly.

After three and a half years as our Executive Director, Barbara Hayward has decided to pursue other opportunities. The Board is very appreciative of Barbara's service, and thanks her for her hard work on behalf of the Church Club. As the Board assesses our needs prior to conducting a search for Barbara's permanent successor, Interim Executive Director Susan Ridgeway will fulfill the ongoing administrative work involved in the daily operations of the Church Club.

Please join me in thanking Barbara for her dedication and service, and in wishing her success and happiness in her future endeavors.

On behalf of the entire Board, let me say how grateful we are to our Membership and friends for your generous ongoing support, which enables the Church Club to continue to achieve its mission of fellowship, education, and service.

Message from the Executive Director

Barbara Hayward

It has been my privilege, and pleasure, to serve as your Executive Director for the past three and a half years. However, at the end of Fiscal Year 2015-2016, I decided to resign from my position. I look forward to maintaining my relationship with the Church Club as an active Member; and I shall continue to cherish the friendships I have made with so many of you.

With your help, I am extremely proud of the accomplishments we have made together. For the past three consecutive fiscal years we have not had to drawdown funds from the Church Club's Endowment to meet operating expenses; the Membership has stabilized; we established the Horizon Legacy Society, a planned giving program, presently with four charter members enrolled; and, importantly, we introduced and sustained the annual Young Adult of the Year Service Recognition Award program – an initiative to support service ministries conducted by young adults in their 20s and 30s, currently in its third year.

As a result of forward-thinking Boards of Trustees over the years, the historic progress of the Church Club is distinctive. When founded in 1887, it was a nineteenth century social and charitable organization exclusively for lay Episcopal men; in the twentieth century (1975) lay Episcopal women started becoming members; and in the twenty-first century (2011) lay members of all faiths are welcome to join. And, in 2016, as a result of the recently approved amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws, members of the clergy are now eligible to become Church Club members. (Non-Episcopalian laity, formerly called "Friends," are now Associate members, as are Episcopalian clergy.)

At the end of Fiscal Year 2015-2016, as reported on page 11, the Church Club Membership count was 271; down from 296 the previous year at the same time due to the Board-approved termination of delinquent members. You, our loyal and dedicated members in good-standing, are the best advocates to encourage prospective members to become part of our wonderful organization.

2016 Young Adult of the Year Service Recognition Award

The Church Club's Young Adult of the Year Award is an annual competitive award program, initiated in 2014, which provides recognition to an outstanding Young Adult (in his or her 20s or 30s), or group of Young Adults, for exceptional voluntary mission-related and/or community outreach service within a congregation. The Award is accompanied by an honorarium in the amount of $1,000 ($500 for the Young Adult and $500 for the Young Adult's church or designated community outreach ministry), presented at the Church Club's Annual Meeting.

Caroline Angell, of The Church of the Epiphany, receives the Church Club's Third Annual Young Adult of the Year 2016 Service Recognition Award, presented by The Rt. Rev. Allen K. Shin, Bishop Suffragan of New York, for establishing Racket, an ongoing program for the collection and distribution of feminine hygiene products to homeless women, and for raising awareness on policy issues related to menstruation and equality.

Spring 2016 Event

Tuesday evening, March 1, 2016

Women Rectors: Leadership for the 21st Century
The Church of the Ascension, Fifth Avenue at 10th Street

A panel and roundtable discussion as women rectors of The Episcopal Diocese of New York explored new and old challenges of serving God in today's changing world.

On the first day of Women's History Month, nearly half of the diocese's female rectors gathered for the sold-out symposium organized by the Church Club. With dozens of other women priests, as well as seminarians, Education for Ministry students, Church Club members, and members of the general public, the evening began with celebration of the Eucharist by Ascension's rector, The Rev. Elizabeth G. Maxwell, who then provided a brief history of her church for the 70-plus attendees. Both the panelists' remarks and the roundtable discussions were compelling for their frankness, with conversations circling around two key points: Gender equality has not yet been achieved – sexism persists; and, equally regrettable, racial prejudice persists. Progress to date was noted, but there was an honest acknowledgement that a complex and multifaceted journey still lies ahead. The program was moderated by The Rev. Margaret R. Rose, Ecumenical and Interreligious Deputy to the Presiding Bishop, The Episcopal Church.

Report of the Treasurer

Chris Strome

The financial health of the Church Club has stabilized during recent years, reversing a previous trend. I am please to report that for the last three consecutive years, due to careful fiscal management, the Board of Trustees has not had to invade the Church Club’s endowment to offset expenses for general operating support. Earlier in the year, however, we had to “borrow” funds due to cash-flow considerations, which, happily, were returned to the endowment before the end of the fiscal year.

As a result of the success of this year’s Annual Dinner honoring Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, we ended the year with a positive net income, exceeding our approved budget. This never would have been possible without the generosity of over two dozen individual members of the Honorary Benefit Committee, as well as generous support from the Episcopal Church Foundation, the Church Pension Group, Saint Thomas Church Fifth Avenue, The Episcopal Church, and Trinity Wall Street Church.

Your Membership contributions remain a vital source of Church Club revenue. During 2015-2016, we exceeded our expectations; and, in the fiscal year we welcomed nineteen new and/or reinstated members.

The Church Club has no current liabilities. Our assets, held with the Diocesan Investment Trust, as of June 30, 2016, totaled $343,112, of which $268,526 was unrestricted and $74,586 comprised a donor-restricted endowment fund of which only the interest may be used to support the general activities of the Church Club. This compares to $350,497 of which $274,159 was unrestricted at the same time last year.
